

Samantha Price
(Educational Therapist and Director of Student Support Services)

Samantha Price is our Educational Therapist, Resource Teacher, and Director of Student Support Services.. She graduated from McMaster University with her B.A. in English and from Brock University with her Bachelor of Education. Samantha also earned her ECE from Sheridan College. She is currently completing her Special Education Specialist. Samantha is a Professionally Certified Educational Therapist with NILD Canada. In her free time, Samantha enjoys reading, watching movies and spending time with her husband and son.

